TUCK'S POST CARD

CARTE POSTALE — POSTKARTE

Wells is a charmingly situated town in Mid Somerset, the great interest and attraction of which centres round its Cathedral. This beautiful building as now standing was begun in 1174, the process of construction and completion lasting until the 14th century. Portions of an earlier building may still be traced. The chief glory of the Cathedral is the West Front (1205-41).
